Glass Open Book

HGR International Oy

Specializing in helping businesses to profitably grow through expanding in international markets, providing support when and where needed to increase exports.

Follow the company

Description:	Professional glass cullet and glass powder export and import consultancy Specializing in helping businesses to profitably grow through expanding in international markets, providing support when and where needed to increase exports. International Trade Consultancy Helping you to plan and implement your export strategy for profitable growth. Report-based In-depth research and analysis of your key target markets, providing you with a ready-made strategic market entry plan, taking you through step-by-step to achieve your objectives. Strategically-led One-to-one mentoring and overview at a strategic level, providing a forward-thinking opinion based on years of experience, understanding and expertise. Market-led Get to know your market, know the potential and understand the challenges. initial market research into your target market to assess the scope of your opportunity. Sales-led Actively working with you and your team to implement a market entry strategy and expand your export sales, generating real results for your business.
Location:	Finland
Sectors:	Glass recycling
Activities:	Agent, Service provider

Contact information

E-mail:	henry.rawstorne@hgrinternational.net
Website:	hgrinternational.org
Telephone:	+3584047443638